HUNDREDS ARE KILLED IN RIOTS

General Strike in Berlin Continues to Spread in Germany

WORK OF SPARTACANS

Many Persons Killed and Wounded in Fighting With Soldiers—Counter Strike Inaugurated.

London, April 3.—Several hundred persons have been killed in renewed riotng at Frankfort, a dispatch from Copenhagen reports.

The general strike in Berlin is spreading through Germany. Clashes have occurred between workers and troops in various cities, resulting in casualties.

Indications are growing that the uprisngs are inspired by the Spartacans, who are believed to be employing these disturbances to weaken the government, preparatory to declaring a third revolution.

The government has proclaimed a state of siege in the whole of the Rhineland, defying the 50,000 miners on strike there. The situation in that region endangers food shipments and the coal supply, and may even effect payments to the allies for maintenance of the armies of occupation.

Release of Herr Daumig, radical leader charged with inciting the Spartacan uprisng in January, has temporarily allayed the general strike in Berlin. The metal workers, however, threaten to walk out on their own initiative.

Many persons were killed and wounded in fighting with soldiers at Castrop near Bochum (twenty-six miles northeast of Dusseldorf.)

Wurtenburg had joined the general strike. At Stuttgart, the bourgeoisis have started a counter strike completely paralyzing the city's industries.

A counter strike by the more conservative elements also has been declared in the Ruhr district where troops are exercising strenuous measures to control the workers. A number of Spartacans there have been killed or wounded and others have been arrested.

The Berlin correspondent reported that "syndicalists, more extreme than the Spartacans," are fomenting a revolution in Bavaria, with headquarters at Munich. The Krupps have closed their Munich factories, throwing 4,000 out of work.

TO WAR ON ILLITERACY

Educational Campaign Begun to Reach All Unable to Read or Write

A drive to eliminate illiteracy is now on, full swing, in the South.

Information reaching the Department of Commerce yesterday indicates that a number of Southern States have launched campaigns, with a view to vastly reducing illiteracy before the taking of the 1920 census.

Alabama has already started, State Superintendent of Education Dowell, reported to the Department of Commerce, by appointment of a special offifficial under whose direction the work of eliminating illiteracy, will be conducted in individual counties, two of which having already started.

In Louisiana, State Superintendent Harris has advised school officials and a score or more of parishes, where adult illiteracy is great, to supply special teachers for the summer months and require them to organize classes at convenient hours during the day and evening for teaching.

While only two States have been officially heard from as yet regarding the plan, it was believed that campaigns were well under way in other States. The opinion was expressed that many Northern States are anxious to follow the lead of the South, but were first waiting to see rseults.

HOUSING PROBLEM REPORT MADE

DEMAND FOR HOUSES

A Working Capital of $100,000 Would Erect Twenty-Five Houses Offsetting High Cost o fIndividual Construction.

R. Stuart Royer, business manager of the Chamber of Commerce, has submitted the following report on the housing situation to the civic bureau of the Chamber of Commerce.

It is my desire to call your attention to what I consider one of the most important matters to which you can direct your attention .

That definite steps be taken to solve our housing problem, is immediately necessary, and vital to the best interests of Alexandria.

This problem on a large scale, began to confront Alexandria many months ago, due to an influx of industrial workers ;a thing Alexandria had probably been hoping would happen for many years. To accept and take care of the opportunity presented, to make Alexandria a large industrial center, homes must be provided in Alexandria to accommodate those who desire to cast their lot with us.

While this opportunity has been ours for many months, we have up to the present time, done very little to accept it and make our growth permanent. However, every one seems to realize the importance of this matter, and I believe we can make progress in the right direction, by working out some definite plans to build homes.

Up to the present time, the one phase of the matter that we have considered, or tried to take care of, was to provide any kind of quarters for newcomers, where they can eat, sleep, and exist. Even dealing with this phase of the problem only, it is doubtful whether we have provided living facilties, (I do not use the term homes), for one-half of the people who desired to make their homes here. Even had we succeeded in placing all applicants we would not have solved the problem, but in

Tyrol Intends to "Go Red" if Italians Fail to Withdraw

SERBIAN REPUBLIC

Geneva, April 3.—German officers from artillery attached to Field Marshal Von Mackensen's staff are reorganizing the Hungarian army, which during the past month has increased from 62,000 to 100,000.

This news, just brought here by travelers from Budapest, comes on the heels of the announcement that the Hungarian Bolshevist government has sent a delegation to Berlin to conclude an alliance against the entente.

At the same time it is learned the Tyrol proposes to "go red" if the Italians do not forthwith withdraw from the country.

Rome, April 3.—The newspaper Vetcherni Lizt, announces the Kara-Georgevitch dynasty has been deposed in Serbia, and a republic proclaimed in Belgrade, according to a dispatch from Agram today.

Recent dispatches have reported the radical elements in Serbia, extremely active in preparing to seize the government.

Prince George, who is only 32 years old, has been regent since the privations suffered while leading the Serbian army during the Austro-German invasion compelled his aged father, King Peter, to retire from active administration of the throne.

Under the plans of the Jugo-Slavs the Kara-Georgevitch dynasty was to become the ruling house of the new empire, which was to include Jugo-Slavia, Serbia and Montenegro.

The founder of the dynasty was Kara-Georg ((Black George) Petrovich, who was proclaimed commander in chief of Serbia in 184. He was murdered in 1817, leaving two sons Alexis and Alexander. The latter was chosen reigning prince in 1842. He was forced to abdicate in 1858. The throne passed into the hands of the Obrenovich dynasty. When Alexander of that house was assassinated in 1903, Peter Kara-Georgevitch was elected to the throne.

BOLSHEVISTS FAILING

Railroad Strike and Other Demonstrations Short Lived in Austria

Paris, April 3,—Reports received by the French Foreign Office are to the effect that the Bolshevik movement in German Austria has, as a general thing, been unsuccessful.

The railroad strike at Vienna was ended after a few hours, and the insurrection which started at Gratz has been put down.

Reassuring reports from Hungary have been received by the French authorities, and officials now believe that it will be possible to resume diplomatic relations with Hungary soon. M. Allize, former, French Minister to Holland, has been sent on a special mission to Vienna.

HELD WITHOUT BAIL

Soldiers on Guard at Hearing of Alleged Slayer of Whisky Runners

Woodstock, Va., April 3.—Four Virginia State prohibition agents, charged with murdering Lawrence D. Hudson and Raymond Shackelford, alleged liquor law violators killed near here last week, were held without bail for the grand jury after a hearing here yesterday before a magistrate.

The accused men—Harry F. Sweet, J. H. Sullivan, W. C. Hall and W. M. Dunleavy—were orderd taken to the Fredericksburg jail under protection of the Richmond militia company, which had stood guard in and about the courthouse during the hearing.

When the magistrate's court convened, the room was cleared of all spectators, and a soldier with fixed bayonet guarded each door and window.

Four witnesses testified during the morning session, all of them being automobilists who were held up by the prohibiton agents a short time before the Shackelford machine was stopped. They swore they were stopped by an automobile searchlight flashed from the center of the road and that men accosted them with drawn pistols and without giving notice that they were officers of the law.

Although a big crowd met the train on which the agents and soldiers arrived and followed them to the jail where the agents were confined for the night, they soon dispersed after being warned not to attempt violence.

Although hundreds of persons were going into and coming from the Thirty-fourth street entrance of the Pennsylvania station, across the street, the robbers were undisturbed.

Aside from his real estate activities Burroughs has been buying and selling Liberty Bonds. "DRY" OFFICIALS OPEN A COFFIN

METHODS DEPLORED

Procedures against passengers on Pullman trains by Virginia prohibition officers coming to the attention of State and national authorities have aroused such deep resentment that an acute situation has been developed, and a sweeping investigation is under way to correct alleged abuses perpetrated behind the shield of protended or overzealous enforcement of "dry" laws.

Both the railroad administration and Governor Westmoreland Davis, of Virginia, are intent on keeping the prohibition officers within bounds of the law.

It is reported that an express car on a southbound train, which was held up at Roanoke, Va., Monday night, was entered and a casket containing the body of Robert E. Chapman, a commercial salesman, was broken open by prohibition agents searching for liquor. Chapman, who was employed by the Interstate Hardware Company of Bristol, Va., dropped dead while visiting in New Haven, Conn., and his body was being shipped to his father, Prof. C. Y. Chapman, at Norton, Va., near the Kentucky-Tennessee border.

The charge is made that after the casket had been searched it was transhipped through Bluefield, W. Va. The casket would have gone into Tennessee at the Bristol station had it gone through and from there sent to Norton.

Officials in Washington learned yesterday of the breaking and searching of the casket. The incident is expected to give impetus to the efforts of the railroad administration to safeguard passengers on trains from methods now employed by the Virginia agents.

J. Sidney Peters, the Virginia State prohibition commissioner, who has been warned by the railroad administration in a letter by Judge Payne that his men must act within legal authority and show a discreet regard in dealing with women passengers, has been inclined to defend his subordinates in the performance of their duty. He says that he has received many testimonials of their tact and gentility.

CRIME WAVE AT NORFOLK

Thieves Beat and Rob Barge Captain As Climax to Activities

Norfolk, Va., April 3.—The very real wave of highway robbery which has made Norfolk citizens very careful about going out at night came to a head when A. C. Garnett, captain of a Texas Oil Company barge, reported that he had been held up by highwaymen last Friday night and robbed of $71, and that the same men who robbed him on Friday came to his barge on Saturday night and robbed him again. This time they secured $65.

Garnett stated, and his appearance bore out the statement, that on both occasions the men beat him until unconscious. He was served so severely Friday nigh that the services of a phycisian were needed and he was not able to leave the barge Saturday. The second beating was not so severe. Garnett suffered two black eyes, a broken nose, the loss of several teeth and many bruises about the head.

No less than a dozen highway robberies have been reported to the police within the past week and every effort is being made by the police to round up the highwaymen, so far without success.

"DRY" AGENTS' ENERGY

The killing last week of two men on the Valley Turnpike by prohibition inspectors on the charge of bootlegging has caused considerable comment in all sections of the Old Dominion. The agents affirm that the alleged violators of the law discharged their pistols first, but the dying declarations of one of the victims of the affray was to the contrary. He asserted in his death-bed statement that the officers fired first. However, this will be duly investigated at the trial in the court. As will be seen, the prohibition agents have been sent on to the grand jury on the charge of murder, and they are now in jail in Fredericksburg, bail having been refused.

We have no apology to make for law-breakers. The present law forbids the transportation of liquor into Virginia, and the mandate of the majority should be obeyed. But the killing of the two men near Winchester last week makes four persons who have lost their lives incidental to liquor-smuggling into Virginia in less than ten months. J. C. Shelhorse, a prohibition agent, was shot and killed at the Union passenger station in Alexandria last June, and W. E. Payne, another inspector, was shot and killed by another negro in Alexandria county a few weeks ago.

Officers of the District of Columbia a few days ago captured five thousand dollars' worth of liquor without hurting anybody. They intercepted an automobile loaded with choice brands of whisky. Those in charge attempted to get away, but the officers, not aiming their pistols at the men in the auto, fired at the wheels, punctured the tires brought the atuo to a standstill and took possession of the men and their cargo.

Great complaint is now being made over the manner in which Pullman cars are invaded by the prohibition agents in search for liquor. It is alleged that women are humiliated in the efforts of the officers to enforce the dry law, and the railroad adminstration has appeared to Governor Davis to have passengers protected.

It is said that a coffin containing the remains of a man who had dropped dead in another city was broken open at Danville this week by zealous inspectors.

During our civil war accounts of the alleged drastic measures instituted by General B. F. Butler, military governor of New Orleans, in his search for treasonable documents caused great exasperation. The manner in which women were treated was especially condemned. Prohibition agents, it is alleged, do not hesitate to invade the sleeping apartments of men and women on Pullman trains and use flashlights in their search for liquor, acting as despotically as it is alleged Butler conducted his investigations.

THE WAR ON TOBACCO

Tobacco is a filthy weed,
And from the devil it doth proceed;
It drains the pocket, scents the clothes
And makes a chumbley of the nose.

The Philadelphia Record directs attention to the fact that above lines used to be recited at school by good little boys in the days of George Trask. The present generation does not know George Trask. His mission in life was to proclaim "Rum and Tobacco Twins."

"If the soul of George Trask is in communication with this world and his disposition has undergone no change, he must experience paroxysms of delight at learning that the war on tobacco has been definitely entered upon. In his own day Trask could only write tracts and make speeches. At that time a large measure of personal liberty was supposed to be a fundamental human right. Even a minority was then belived to have rights, and he could not hope to invoke the heavy hand of the United States Government to save the wretched smoker from himself.

"But we have advanced far since his time. There is no longer occasion to write tracts in the interest of virtue. It is no longer necessary to convince the vicious, because the power to be vicious may be taken from them. It is now an established principle of democracy that personal liberty is nothing but a cover for vice and crime. True and enlightened liberty is simply the liberty of the majority. Whatever proposition commends itself to the majority may as a matter of course be enforced upon the minority. We have been studying Socialsm since George Trask died, and Socialism tolerates no minorities; the community as a whole decides what is good and what is bad, and enforces its conclusions upon every individual. No one now dares to claim personal liberty because that is tantamount to announcing his intention of committing crime. In the early days of democracy the principle that the majority rules was consistent with a regard for what was weakly considered the rights of the minority. But now we know better; the minority has no rights.

"Many years ago James Parton raised the question: "Will the Coming Man Drink and Smoke?" and answered it in the negative. It has been decided that in America he will not drink, and a mighty army who do not like tobacco are going to see to it that he has nothing to smoke."

A DECIDED LULL

During the month of February the sum of $849 was collected in fines in the Police Court. During the month of March they did not amount to half that sum, only $378.50 being turned into the city traesury.

But few matters have been brought to the attention of the Police Department this week. A few trivial cases were disposed of Monday, but yesterday there was a clear docket, as was the case this morning, and no session of the Police Court has been held during the past two days.

It would be well were it always so. But crime generally comes in waves. After a few days dull serious cases are likely to be reported.

The above, however, is a good showing for a city of the present population and dimensions of Alexandria. Members of the police force patrol every section of the city night and day, and with their present facilties in the way of a modern motorcycle and patrol wagon they can reach any neighborhood in a few minutes.

Let us hope our old city will continue to enjoy its present tranquility.

Kidney and bladder troubles don't disappear of themselves. They grow upon you, slowly but steadily, undermining your health with deadly certainty, until you fall a victim to incurable disease.

Stop your troubles while there is time. Don't wait until little pains become big aches. Don't trifle with disease. To avoid future suffering begin treatment with GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Oil Capsules now. Take three or four every day until you feel that you are entirely free from pain.

This well-known preparation has been one of the national remedies of Holland for centuries. In 1696 the government of the Netherlands granted a special charter authorizing its sale.

The good housewife of Holland would almost as soon be without food as without her "Real Dutch Drops" as she quaintly calls GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Oil Capsules. Their use restores strength and is responsible in a great measure for the sturdy, robust health of the Hollanders.

Do not delay. Go to your druggist and insist on his supplying you with a box of GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Oil Capsules. Take them as directed, and if you are not satisfied with results your druggist will gladly refund your money. Look for the name GOLD MEDAL on the box and accept no other. In sealed boxes, three sizes.

Judicious Advertising

The question of whether or not advertising pays has been debated time and again—in every corner of the world—and always there has been the same answer

IT DOES PAY

The Gazette goes into practically every home in Alexandria and your advertising is read every evening by more than 3,000 prospective shoppers. And these readers are the ones the local merchant must depend upon for his support.

Some merchants persist in the alibi that too many people shop out of town. This fact shows that the average person does read advertising and that if local merchants took more pains in putting their merchandise before the public there would be less out-of-town shopping.

Of course not—for you'd see to it that your shoes were the tough soled, substantial, serviceable sort.

The same holds with the "shoes" for your automobile.

HOUSING PROBLEM

reality, as far as living conditions are concerned, we would have made our housing conditions worse.

Persons to be good and desirable citizens, must be able to live under proper housing conditions, pleasant surroundings, and proper influences, which cannot be accomplished by overcrowding into crowded quarters.

If we are to make Alexandria the kind of city we hope to see it grow into, we have got to look at the proposition in a broader way than we have in the past, and solve our problem accordingly. It will be of doubtful benefit to Alexandria to have more industrial plants and manufacturies come to our city, unless we can provide proper living conditions for the people they will bring.

To permanently add to our growth we must provide those things in Alexandria which will make it an attractive place to live in, and raise a family in. The real building of our city, state, and nation, depends in its final analysis upon the development of the individual citizenship. Every right thinking man with a family, who does not own a home, hopes some day to own one, and when he sees an opportunity to begin to buy a home, he will want to get located in a place where he can earn a living, and at the same time, have his home in a community where he can raise his family under pleasant surroundings and influences, and enjoy the most advantages.

The growth of Alexandria that will be of lasting benefit, will be measured by the amount of home building Alexandria can do.

The floating population coming to Alexandria, and having to live under improper conditions, will remain in Alexandria only until they can find work in some other place, where they can enjoy proper surroundings and benefits. The greater part of our new population lives in Alexandria, because on account of peculiar conditions they can probably make a little more money here than elsewhere. In most cases it is probably true that these people would not want to become permanent citizesn of Alexandria under existing conditions.

Many men already working in Alexandria, have been unable to bring their families here, and will not bring them here under present conditions.

On the other hand, every man you can provide a suitable home for, under a plan whereby he can eventually pay for and own his own home, you have in most cases made a very permanent citizen of him and have secured a valuable asset for your community, He will have a home that will be his some day, and the community has a citizen who will be a real asset to the city.

I would again emphasize the fact that if you want to build Alexandria along permanent lines, build homes. If you want your new citizenship to be the right kind of citizenship, build the right kind of homes, under some plan whereby those who occupy them will some day own them.

It is to the practical solution of the problem that we should direct our best energies. It appears that although there is ample capital available, and the importance of building homes is realized, the cost of material and labor has had a great deal to do with holding up building operation.

With the demand for attractive, moderate sized homes in Alexandria so great, it woud appear that houses of this kind could be disposed of very readily. Considering building is going on in other communities, where conditions are much more uncertain than in Alexandria, and while there might be a small chance of losing on the proposition financially, the chances appear very remote.

If a few men cannot be secured to put capital into a building proposition, it might be a good plan to organize a building company, with a large number of stockholders, and small individual holdings, in which case if the worst predictions were realized, the individual loss would be small, whereas if it succeeds, as in all probability it would, a reasonable rate on the investment would be realized, to say nothing of the valuable asset that would be secured through the erection of houses in the community.

In my opinion it would be an easy matter to finance a building company in Alexandria.

A working capital of $100,000 would be ample to finance the erection of twenty-five houses, and the economy accomplished by the erection of this number of houses in one operation would greatly offset the present high cost of erecting individual residences. I believe that this number of houses could be sold before they were ready to be occupied, and after the operation was once started it could be carried along, and the future building operations based on the demand that would develop after the proposition was once started.

I hope that you, the business men, will give this matter your most careful consideration, and if you succeed in working out a practical plan to erect homes in Alexandria, it will do more for the real development of Alexandria than any of us can at present realize.

If it is possible to lose on a building proposition, on the scale suggested above, the loss would be confined to what decline there might be in the value of real estate purchased, and the cost of material and labor, which at the worst could only be a small percentage of the investment. Would not the indirect benefits derived by every merchant and business man in Alexandria from the addition of twenty-five houses in the City of Alexandria, warrant a small amount of risk that might be involved in undertaking this proposition, which is a definite step to build Alexandria along permanent lines.

If this proposition succeeds, as it probably will, it will mean the beginning of a building boom in Alexandria, on a scale many times the size of that which I have suggested that you begin now.

Can anyone predict how long Alexandria's big opportunity will be hers to take advantage of.

BLOODY KNIFE FOUND

Crimson-Blotted Dagger Also Discovered in Home of Dr. Wilkin s

Mineola, Long Island, April 3.—A dagger and two smaller knives, all bearing crimson stains, which were found by detectives in the Manhattan home of Dr. Walter K. Wilkins, may be of vital importance when the physician is called to trial next month for the murder of his wife. The investigators said yesterday that a few days after the murder of Mrs. Wilkins at Long Beach they found the knives in a drawer of the physician's desk. The dagger has a four inch blade.

It is the theory of the detectives that the collie dog, Duke, was stabbed in the mouth on the night of the murder so that he could not bark. This could be done by an experienced person in such a way that the wound would not be noticeable even on close examination. The investigators pointed out that such a wound is made by a veterinary surgeon when he is treating a horse for blind staggers.

Two smaller pearl-handled pocket knives had stains on the handles, but their blades were clean.

The will made by Mrs. Wilkins in 1915 was made public yesterday. This will, which has been frequently called "a scrap of paper" by Louis Wilkins, makes the physician the testator and principal beneficiary of her estate, which amounts to about $75,000. Because this will was not witnessed or signed before a Commissioner of Deeds Mr. Friess did not file it for probate. When the authorities sought to find the will he did not produce it because, he explained, he knew the doument was not valid.

LET FOCH DO IT

Senator Harding Suggests General Write Peace Treaty as he Did Armistice.

The suggestion that Gen. Foch would write the peace treaty and wind it up in a hurry as he did the armistice terms was advanced yesterday by Senator Warren G. Harding, of Ohio. Gen. Foch could be depended upon, the Senator said, to guard the security of the United States as well as that of France and Great Britain.

Senator Harding criticised the delay at the Peace Conference and declared that it has brought the allies apparently to the point of recognizing Bolshevism.

"Not only is Bolshevist destructiveness to be countenanced in fallen Russia," he added, "but the world will awaken pretty soon to the fact that Germany is dominant there and has expanded infinitely more through revolution and delay than it was expected to accomplish by force of arms.

Senator Harding declared that it is a "dangerous business to trade on our position as a world creditor and to force Europe and America into a hasty compact to establish world internationalism."

Declaring that he will make no speeches on the league of nations until he knows definitely what the proposal is, Senator Harding said that the United States will accept nothing which puts an end to national aspirations; neither will any of the other powers represented in the Peace Conference, he said. The Senator said it would be easy for the conference to provide for a clear and unmistakable enunciation of international law and commit all the allied nations to its enforcement.

VIRGINIA NEWS

Thomas W. Fisher, 9 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Fisher, of Crozet, is dead as a result of a kerosene explosion at his home on Wednesday of last week.

Harry D. Hulburt, soldier of Wyanet, Ill., was indcted Tuesday by a Roanoke county grand jury for the killng of Claude Willam Noel, jitney driver, on Hollins road, about 5 miles from the city on Tuesday night of last week. The indictment charges first degree murder. At the request of the counsel for the accused, the court appointed a lunacy board to inquire into Hulburt's sanity.

With mile after mile of red, white and blue bunting and flags of the allies predominating, Newport News presented a gay appearance when the President Grant, with more than 5,000 troops, docked there early yesterday. Casual companies from Virginia, Georga, Alabama, Tennessee and Missouri were among those abroad. There were 76 casual officers and 682 sick and wounded.

Serious damage to crops in the eastern portion of the State has resulted from the recent cold snap, according to one of the leading agricultural agencies, the Southern Planter. It is said the financial loss will total thousands of dollars in sections where trees had blossomed out. Much of the fruit crop in the higher altitude will be spared, it is thought, owing to the fact that trees in ths section blossom late. Yesterday the thermometer is 24, the coldest ever recorded in Rchmond on April 2.

Acting on instructions issued by Governor Davis the State board of charites and corrections yesterday began an investgation of conditons at the Virginia penitentiary following charges of inhumane treatment there preferred by E. E. Dudding, president of the Prisoners' Relief Society. The investigation grew out of charges that Dr. Asa W. Chamberlain, who was given a long term for murder in Goochland county, was flogged and chained to a cross until he was rendered unconscious for an alleged attempt to escape from the prison.

KHAKI SOLDIERS DO NOT LET UP

And the Nation Will Show That It Stands Behind Them in the Victory Liberty Loan Drive.

More than a million of Uncle Sam's boys are "over there" looking after the common good of the world. And they will have to stay upon the job until it is done; until things are right-ed again; until order is brought out of chaos.

While they are overseas they must be taken care of adequately; they must be clothed and fed and lodged comfortably. Uncle Sam estimates that it costs $442.37 a year to equip and maintain a soldier in Europe.

Part of the proceeds from the coming Victory Liberty Loan will be devoted to caring for the "doughboys." Part of it will go into the rehabilitation fund for putting the injured soldiers back upon their feet. Part of it will go for insurance claims. The rest of it will go to meet the hundred and one other demands for this greatest of world emergencies since the dawn of civilization.

Each mother's son of them did his part to help insure liberty and justice the world at large and restore Uncle Sam to his rightful position in the estimation of the nations of earth.

They did their duty fully, these boys over there. They fought to the end, through fire and flood. They never talked about letting up.

This is no time for Americans to think of letting up. The nation must stand by its guns, by its records, by Uncle Sam and must make the next loan another big success.

FINISH THE JOB

Success of the Victory Liberty loan, the fifth government war loan, will depend largely on the savings of the people of the nation.

To insure its success, we must save NOW—to practice anew the great lessons of the war, thrift and economy. Aside from the loss of respect for ourselves as a nation, every family will be unpleasantly affected, if the coming loan is not fully subscribed. Uncle Sam's war exchequer is compelled to spend money to maintain the army of occupation, to rehabilitate the wounded, to bring home the victors and to carry out the program of reconstruction.

This money is being borrowed from the banks of the country, and Uncle Sam is issuing short-term certificates of indebtedness in anticipation of the coming Liberty Loan and of the federal income taxes. If the banks were not speedily paid back, their resources would be gone, and as they could make no loans, credit operations would be hampered and business stagnate.

How about it? Will we finish our job—that of paying the war bills, as our immortal heroes finished theirs of vanquishing the Hun? They were not quitters, even when called on to make the supreme sacrifice. Will we be quitters, when there is all to gain and nothing to lose?

A little saving now is all it will cost and this saving will mean a stronger grip on the future. The Victory Liberty Loan will soon be offered. Will you be ready to do your part?

CHALONER GETS PROTECTION

Court Forbids Interference While He is at New York Libel Trial

New York, April 3.—John Armstrong Chaloner, the millionaire, whose escape from an asylum at White Plains, New York, many years ago was followed by a long legal fight to gain possession of his fortune in this state, has been granted a writ of protection by Federal Judge Hand, so that he may come to this city from his home at Roanoke Rapids, N. C., to appear in his suit for libel against a newspaper.

The writ restrains officials of the supreme court, by which Chaloner was adjudged insane in 1897, the asylum authorities, Chaloner's brother, Lewis Stuyvesant, Chanler, former lieutenant governor of New York, and others from interfering with his movements during the progress of the trial.

Resolved.

That peace will find us backing Uncle Sam as strongly as we backed him in war.

That between now and April we will lay every possible stone of the groundwork for the Fifth Liberty Loan and leave no act undone which will tend to keep alive and quicken the consciousness of the nation that savings and thrift are peace essentials.

That we will exert our efforts to stop trafficking in bonds of the first four loans and will keep our War Savings Stamps.

That we will carry out our War Savings pledge if that is unfulfilled, and make and keep new Savings pledges this year.

That we will work tooth and nail from now till the last day of the April drive to oversubscribe that Liberty Loan.

That we will finish our job.

Rome, April 3.—The Osservatore Romao yesterday published an interchange of correspondence between Pope Benedict and the Bolsheviki regarding alleged persecution of the Catholic clergy in Russia.

Archbishop Silvestre, of Omsk, appealed to the Pope to issue an official protest, stating that twenty bishops and hundreds of priests had been murdered and mutilated and a number of churches destroyed.

The Pope sent a wireless to Premier Lenine, imploring him in the name of humanity to stop these excesses. Foreign Minister Tchitcherin replied that all Russians are equal, and accused the priests of hoarding food.

NEWS OF THE DAY

The Allies have established martial law in Fiume it is reported.

Miss Hildegard Fuller must stand trial as a "common scold," the court in Newark, N. J., delaying her counsel's motion that the indictment be quashed. An old law provides that a woman convicted of this charge must pay the penalty on the "ducking stool."

The great towns of Spain are in the throes of serious strikes. Fearing for the safety of their countrymen in Spain, the British and American ambassadors called upon Premier Romanones yesterday afternoon and had a long conference on the situation. At Barcelona all traffic is stopped by strikes.

On the eve of his departure for a Southern flying field, Lieut. Thomas Graves, aged 23 years, Bolling Field aviator, crashed to his death while testing an ordnance scout plane yesterday afternoon at 3:55 o'clock.

The Popolo Romano announced yesterday that it learns the Peace Conference has settled Italian claims favorably to Italy.

Police detectives were yesterday afternoon rushed to the United States arsenal in Pittsburgh, Pa., in response to a riot call. Army officers reported that several men were attempting to gain entrance to the government plant. Army officials at the arsenal said that four men who had attempted to open the arsenal gate escaped in an automobile a few minutes before the police arrived. Following closely on the arrest Tuesday night of William Wyciss, alleged Bolshevik leader, and the subsequent revelation of a plan to seize the arsenal here, Federal authorities regard the attempt yesterday to enter the government property as signficant.

Memphis gasoline war between the Standard Oil and Gulf Refining Company, which had forced the price of gasoline down to 11 cents a gallon retail and 9 cents wholesale, ended with a bang yesterday. Without the slightest warning both companies increased their price to 23 cents this morning, the figure at which it stood before the price cutting scrap started three weeks ago. All filling stations were charging 11 cents last night, and all of them increased to 23 cents at the same time yesterday morning.

The story is being spread among the Japanese population of Korea that American agitation is responsible for the movement of the Koreans to break away from Japanese rule. This false report has stirred the Japanese against all Americans and hostility against the latter is growing intense. Three British subjects, mistaken for American citizens, were badly mauled by a mob of Japanese. One arrest was made.

John W. Clark, who Tuesday declined to vacate his office as postmaster of Augusta, Ga., when J. C. McAuliffe, armed with credentials from Washington came to take charge, yesterday turned the office over to McAuliffe as the result of advices received Tuesday night. It is understood, however, that Clark, who claims that as he was appointed by the President he should not be removed except at the President's direction, intends to make a legal fight to regain the postmastership. Clark, a Confederate veteran, was renominated by the President for another full term, but confirmation failed as the result of the Republican filibuster. McAuliffe is a newspaper man.

FOCH AND ERZBERGER CONFERRING ON DANZIG

Germans Agree on Attitude They Will Take in Controversy Over Polish

Spa. Wednesday, April 3,—Mathias Erzberger, head of the German armistice commission, arrived here today accompanied by a number of technical and other advisers, including the chief burgomaster of Danzig.

Before leaving Berlin Erzberger had a final consultation with representatives of all parties, at which an agreement was reached as to the attitude to be adopted in the negotiations with allied representatives here. It seems that the sentiment of the Germans is favorable to a settlement of the Danzig controversy.

Marshal Foch's train is due to arrive here at 7.30 o'clock Thursday morning and the conference, at which the Danzig question will be settled, is fixed for 10 o'clock at Villa Neubois, the residence of Gen. Nudant.

THEY STAND THE TEST OF HARD WEAR

4275 miles is the distance walked by H. M. Foreman on one pair of Neolin Soles. Mr. Foreman, who is a postman in Allentown, Pa., says "The shoes with Neolin Soles gave me continuous service for 9½ months, during which time I averaged 18 miles a day. Ordinary soles last me about one month."

If you are hard on shoes, follow Mr. Foreman's example and buy them with Neolin Soles. These soles are created by Science to be especially tough and durable. Therefore, Neolin-soled shoes wear a long time, and so cut your shoe bills down. Good shoe stores carry them in many styles for men, women, and children.

And have your old shoes re-bottomed with Neolin Soles. Remember—they are comfortable and waterproof, also. Neolin Soles are made by The Goodyear Tire & Rubber Co., Akron, Ohio, who make Wingfoot Heels—guaranteed to outwear all other heels.

GETS $20 BY TRICK

Young Man. Described as "Very Nice Looking," Sought by Police

A young man described as being "very nice looking," of neat appearance and who was bare-headed, is being sought by the Washington police for swindling Mabel Stadredis, a cashier employed at 309 Ninth street northwest. out of $20 last night.

The young man said that he was employed next door and that his boss had sent him to get a $20 bill for twenty $1 bills.

He got the $20 and placed it in an envelope and gave the cashier an envelope supposedly containing the twenty $1 bills. There proved to be only $1 and he made the excuse that his boss must have made a mistake and he thereupon handed the young lady the envelope supposed to contain the $20 which he had just gotten. He went to his place of employment for the other $2 bill, and when he did not return his envelope was found to be empty.

NEGRO ATTACKS GIRL

Maryland Posse Organized—Lynching Feared.

Easton, Md., April 3.—Bertha Simpson, the 13 year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Simpson, who resides with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Dieffenderfer, at Landing Neck, was attacked by a negro Tuesday on the road leading from Trappe to Trappe station. Told she would be killed, if she screamed, as she was brutally handled. A searching party has been organized and is now beating the woods in this veinity, and t is feared the negro will be lynched if found. The descripton given by the girl led suspicion to rest on a negro whose house has been searched and who has evidently fled. Tracks made by a horse, with a shoe off one foot, however, are cosidered a clue; Edward Mullikin, a blacksmith, at Trappe, declaring he put one shoe on the horse owned by the suspected man Tuesday afternoon. The tracks were found along the road where the crime was committed and at the negro's home.

REBUKES WIFE BEATER

A man may not assault his wife and then attempt to justify his actions by besmirching her character.

John T. Kidd, 22, who has been married barely two months, and is employed as a chauffeur, found this out in the Washington police court yesterday morning when Judge McMahon sent him to jail for two months.

From the evidence, it appeared that Kidd had ha dsome disagreement with his wife and she ran away from him

Kidd, it seems, got angry and struck her in the face, nearl yknocking her unconscious.

When Judge McMahon asked the husband in court if he had anything to say about his act, Kidd took the stand and blackened his wife's character in such a manner that the court was forced to call a halt.

Mrs. Kidd, who sat but a few feet away, broke down and began to sob at the charges made by her husband She had to be asssited from the court room.

"You are not satisfied apparently with making a brutal assault on your wife," said the court, "but you come in here and attempt to justify your actions by besmirching your wife's character.

"That sort of thing will never get you anywhere in this court. For a man only married two months you have made a fine record for yourself. You can serve two months in jail."

WORLD WIRELESS PHONE, GENERAL ELECTRIC PLAN

Consulting Engineer Tells Radio Men of System Based on Central Offices

New York, April 3.—Plans for a world wide wireless telephone system are being considered by the General Electric Company, according to a statement made by Ernest F. W. Alexanderson, consulting engineer of the company, in an address here yesterday before the American Institute of Radio Engineers.

Mr. Alexanderson declared that two devices invented by him—the bridge receiver and the barrage receiver—would make possible introduction of such a system so that business deals could be transacted in a few minutes by persons thousands of miles apart.

He explained that the system contemplated is virtually a replica of the exchange system of ordinary telephony. Central offices, he said, would be established in all the principal cities.

PRISON UNDER INVESTIGATION

Inquiry Begun, Following E. E. Dudding's Charge of Inhumane Treatment of Inmates

Richmond, Va., April 3.—Acting on instructions issued by Gov. Davis, the state board of charities and corrections at noon has begun an investigation of conditions at the Virginia penitentiary following charges of inhumane treatment there preferred by E. E. Dudding, president of the Prisoners Relief Society, which maintains headquarters in Washington.

Mr. Dudding accompanied by Mrs. F. C. Widney, vice president of the relief society; Miss Evelyn Abbott secretary, and F. H. Gregg, a former employe of the penitentiary, have arrived here from Washington to attend the inquiry and testify.

Dr. Hastings M. Hart of the Russell Sage Foundation, a prison expert, will sit with the board. Dr. Samuel C. Hatcher, president of the board, said a most rigid investigation will be conducted. He added that the new laws governing the penitentiary which would become ective under the revised code in 1920, left the infliction of punishment very largely in the hands of the prison officers. He wished this to be corrected.

The investigation grew out of charges that Dr. Asa W. Chamberlain, who was given a long term for murder in Goochland county, was flogged and chained to a cross until he was rendered unconscious for an alleged attempt to escape from the prison.

Richard Fite, who was assisting Frank McGoldrick in "running the gantlet" is alleged to have fired the shot when strikers were beating McGoldrick. Foder was shot in the right leg.

The men demand 50 cents per hour for an eight-hour day, reinstatement of men discharged for strike agitation, recognition of the union and payment of wages while they are out on strike. About 150 of 800 employes are reported to be out.

Advices Reaching Paris Indicate Back Down When Foch Arrives.

Paris, April 3,—Germany will not persist in her opposition to the use of Danzig by Polish troops on way from France to Poland, according to advices reaching Paris newspapers.

Marshal Foch, who had planned to leave last night, will leave Paris today for Spa to meet the German representative to discuss the Danzig question. The marshal had a long conference Tuesday with Premier Clemenceau.

Zurich, April 3.—In a view of fresh negotiations over the Danzig question, the German cabinet has decided to gather the chiefs of all parties of the national assembly at Berlin today to reach an agreement as to the policy that is to be followed according to an announcement by the German propaganda service.

BRAINARD, ARCHITECT, DEAD.

Designed Several of Government Structures

New oYrk, April 3—.Owen Brainard, architect and civil engineer, who designed the New York Public Library, the Senate and House office buildings in Washington, the extension of the United States Capitol and the Yale memorial buildings, died suddenly here last night. He was 64 years old.

OH MY STOMACH

"I had stomach trouble so badly that nothing I ate would digest as it should," said Sadie E. Hamilton, Portland, Ore., as she began a remarkable story of the relief she has secured from Argo-Phosphate, the new reconstructive, stomach tonic and system purifier.

"Everything that I ate would lie in my stomach like a lump," she explained. "Gas would form and I would suffer distress all the time. I got so I could hardly keep anything down. Trying to get relief, I had my stomach pumped out, but even this did not help me as I continued just as bad.

"I kept hearing so much about Argo Phosphate that I thought maybe it might help me and I decided to try it. I have taken two bottles and to my surprise I am already feeling fine. I can eat anything and I am not troubled at all.

"I am completely rid of my old stomach trouble that I had for three years. I have not felt so well for years and I am certainly glad to endorse Argo-Phosphate because I want others to be helped by the wonderful medicine."

"The spirit of wanting to help others is what makes suffering men and women give these splendid public endorsements of Argo-Phosphate," said a local druggist. Dispensed by Richard Gibson and The Rexall Store.
